Related Person Transaction Policies and Approval Procedures
Effective: March 8, 2016
Last Annual Review: March 4, 2020

Policy

It is the policy of the Board of Directors of HomeStreet, Inc. (the "Company") that all Interested Transactions with Related Persons, as those terms are defined in this Policy, will be subject to approval or ratification by the Audit Committee in accordance with the procedures set forth below.

Approval Procedures

The Audit Committee (the "Committee") will review the material facts of all Interested Transactions that require the Committee's approval and either approve or disapprove of the entry into the Interested Transaction, subject to the exceptions described below. If advance Committee approval of an Interested Transaction is not feasible and the Interested Transaction can be properly pre-authorized by the Chair of the Committee pursuant to the Policy, then the Interested Transaction will be considered and, if the Committee determines it to be appropriate, ratified at the Committee's next regularly scheduled meeting. In determining whether to approve or ratify an Interested Transaction, the Committee will take into account, among other factors it deems appropriate, whether the Interested Transaction is on terms no less favorable than terms generally available to an unaffiliated third-party under the same or similar circumstances and the extent of the Related Person's interest in the transaction.

The Committee has reviewed the Interested Transactions described below in "Standing Pre-Approval for Certain Interested Transactions" and determined that each of the Interested Transactions described therein will be deemed to be pre-approved or ratified (as applicable) by the Committee under the terms of this Policy. In addition, the Board of Directors has delegated to the Chair of the Committee the authority to pre-approve or ratify (as applicable) any Interested Transaction with a Related Person in which the aggregate amount involved is expected to be less than $1 million. Any proposed Interested Transaction that does not fall under transactions allowed under "Standing Pre-Approval for Certain Interested Transactions" and in which the aggregate amount is expected to exceed $1 million must have prior approval of the Committee without exception. In connection with each regularly scheduled meeting of the Committee, a summary of each new Interested Transaction deemed pre-approved pursuant to paragraph (3) or (4) under "Standing Pre-Approval for Certain Interested Transactions" below and each new Interested Transaction pre-approved by the Chair in accordance with this paragraph will be provided to the Committee for its review.

No director will participate in any discussion or approval of an Interested Transaction for which he or she (or an Immediate Family Member, as defined below) is a Related Person, except that the director will provide all material information concerning the Interested Transaction to the Committee.

If an Interested Transaction will be ongoing, the Committee will establish guidelines for the Company's management to follow in its ongoing dealings with the Related Person and designate a member of the Company's management who is not interested in the transaction to provide oversight of adherence to those guidelines. Thereafter, the Committee, on at least an annual basis, will review and assess ongoing relationships with the Related Person to see that they are in compliance with the Committee's guidelines and that the Interested Transaction remains appropriate.
